Failure to complete ALL questions will delay processing. I declare that the above statements/questions are complete and accurate. I understand that the completion and/or execution of this application does not ensure me a position. If I am accepted as volunteer staff, I fully understand that the omission and/or misrepresentation of facts requested may be cause for immediate dismissal without prior notice. I authorize Crossroads Christian Camp to contact the references listed above and to conduct a sexual history check and/or a criminal history in conjunction with the State Police Records Division to determine the existence of any arrest or conviction, and for the State police to furnish a response to the Crossroads representative. I release each person from liability for providing this information. I understand that the information concerning my references and sexual and criminal history check will be treated in a confidential manner and only those individuals with a legitimate need to know will have access to this information. If accepted, I am willing to abide by the standards of the camp and strive to maintain a high standard of Christian conduct. I have read and understood, and I agree to all the above.
